

CHALICE CAMP CURRICULUM

Chalice Camp is two week-long summer day camps for 1st through 6th graders. The goal of both Chalice Camps is to deepen children's and youth's understanding of themselves as Unitarian Universalists and to expand their knowledge of Unitarian Universalism and their capacity to be articulate about our faith. The activities during the week include daily worship, group building exercises, games, drama, art, study, and a service project.

Created by Rev. Sheri Prud'homme and Laila Ibrahim with financial support from the Fund for Unitarian Universalism

We are so grateful among the many camps we have to choose from and send our girls to each year that there is now one that goes to the heart of our family's spiritual beliefs and provides a nurturance of our children's inner lives that we cannot find anywhere else. I can't really put in words how special the whole experience was.

--parent

I learned more about Unitarian Universalism in this one week than I have in my whole life!

--youth counselor

It's really fun and I just love Chalice Camp!

--camper

The best church camp ever!
